MAISON PANAME ▼

A childhood spent shopping the Paris flea markets influenced designer Denis de la Mézière's lighting and furniture, which were also inspired by French architect and designer Pierre Chareau. Made of only the finest materials, including solid European alabaster, each piece is handcrafted in Maison Paname's Los Angeles workshop. maisonpaname.com

◀ SCAVOLINI

Scavolini's new furniture project, Jeometrica, designed by Luca Nichetto, takes its cues from the work of great abstract masters. Combining visually arresting finishes and shapes, these functional works offer a new expression for contemporary living. scavolini.com

THOMAS LAVIN ▶

In 2025, Los Angeles powerhouse Thomas Lavin celebrates the 25th anniversary of his namesake gallery, with locations in West Hollywood and Laguna offering the best in international home furnishings, textiles, wall coverings, lighting, accessories, and art. thomaslavin.com

▼ JULIAN CHICHESTER

The stylish two-door Mariner cabinet features a limed-oak finish with raised star adornments made from cast brass. Soft-closing drawers and an adjustable shelf add to its functionality, while delicate brass details on the sturdy legs serve as a finishing touch. us.julianchichester.com
