

← MINIMUM BY FALPER

Inspired by artist Donald Judd, the Minimum series by Milan-based Victor Vasilev emphasizes clean lines, proportion and composition. Complementing the pure forms is a curated palette of materials, from thickly veined marble and natural wood to durable composites like Cementobasic (a tinted and washable concrete) and Cristalplant Bio Active (a plant-based resin). falper.it

↓ FORMALIA BY SCAVOLINI

A companion to the kitchen and living room systems that share its name, the Formalia bathroom features the same streamlined silhouette defined by a recessed and angled metal handle. Along with closed storage, the modular program by Italy's Vittore Niolu incorporates the ladder-like Status wall system, which keeps everyday items on display and near at hand. scavolini.com

A Case for Space

MINIMALIST SYSTEMS THAT MAXIMIZE STORAGE AND STYLE IN EQUAL MEASURE

WORDS _Kendra Jackson

→ EVO 21 BY AGAPE

With balanced structures and fuss-free fronts, the Evo 21 cabinets by Benedini Associati have a sleek yet flexible aesthetic. The units can be arranged vertically or horizontally, and deep drawers boast ample out-of-sight storage space. A variety of materials are offered, including wood or marble. agapedesign.it

← D-NEO BY DURAVIT

Belgian designer Bertrand Lejoly aimed for timelessness when devising the D-Neo suite, a collection of furniture, washbasins, a bathtub and a wall-mounted toilet that share a common and approachable language — linear, geometric and versatile. Catering to customization, the series includes a wide range of dimensions and material and finish options for most pieces, making it an ideal solution for bathrooms big and small. duravit.com

